

Benefits Orientation for Newly Hired Employees

We create interactive videos, recruitment guides, benefit guides, enrollment kits and wellness promotions for newly hired employees. We can brand and customize your communications or semi-customize

What Is an Interactive Video?

Interactive videos are posted on a secure, external server for employees and spouses to access from any computer, tablet or smartphone. Viewers can download pdfs or link to websites while viewing the video. The video can also be posted on a portal. See How to Make an Interactive Video. Or go to www.grohcomm.com.
